NAIROBI, KENYA

Brookhouse leads East Africa region, scooping nearly one third of exam awards.

NAIROBI, 14th MAY 2020...Brookhouse Schools has taken the lead in the 2019 Outstanding Cambridge Learner Awards, cementing its position as the highest performing school in the region offering an excellent British curriculum education.

Released on Wednesday, the awards, which are for the May/June 2019 examination season saw Brookhouse students scoop a record 21 out of 74 awards, topping regional schools examined in the International General Certificate of Secondary Education (IGCSE) and Cambridge Board A-levels.

Founded in Kenya in 1981, Brookhouse which has campuses in Karen and Runda, further topped across 14 subjects and produced the Best Student at both IGCSE and A-level.

The Brookhouse Board offered high praise to the students: "We offer our heartfelt congratulations to the students who worked so hard to achieve these awards. Such an achievement reflects individual students' excellence and the collective hardwork and support of the teachers, staff and leadership team."

Atleast 15 other international schools in Kenya received awards, with the next nearest school having 10 awards.

Cambridge International Education (CIE) issues the Outstanding Cambridge Learner Awards annually, and they recognise exceptional learner achievement in Cambridge examinations around the world.

The primary purpose of the awards is to celebrate and recognise the success of high-performing Cambridge learners.
