

BROOKHOUSE SCHOOLS KAREN BULLETIN

BULLETIN NUMBER 8

9th July 2019

From The Director...

To conclude each academic year, I always rely on the sage words of Kurt Hahn, as relevant today as when they were written. With all that swirls around us on the global stage, I can see the need in today's world, more than ever before, for a Round Square values-based character education. As the school year concludes, let me take this opportunity to wish all our students and their families a safe and restful holiday break. I look forward to welcoming everyone back to school in late August.

- Mr O'Connor, Director

SERVANT LEADER

“

There is more in us than we know if we could be made to see it; perhaps for the rest of our lives we will be unwilling to settle for less..

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK

Recently...

After the success of the two Prep plays, Mary Poppins at Karen and Ali Baba and the Four Thieves at Runda, along with the impressive Art Exhibition at The Junction, the final week of term gave us various Inter-House sports activities, a boot camp for Year 11, trial A-level lessons for Year 12 and useful parent consultation feedback sessions. As always, reports were issued for all students for the end of the academic year.

Last Week...

Final Assemblies on Friday 5th July provided excellent reflections of the vast array of activities that have taken place this year. My grateful thanks to all who contributed to the assembly presentations.

Farewells...

with the end of another academic year we say farewell and best wishes to those teachers moving on from both campuses. September will see several additions to the staff and all positions have been filled.

Round Square...

the Round Square international conference is scheduled for early October 2019, hosted by Emerald Heights School in Indore, India.
